

Guidelines for AAOS Member Logo

AAOS Members who are Supervisors, Supervisor trainers or Recognised Supervisor Training Provider's (RSTP) are eligible to use the AAOS Member Logo on their business cards, websites and advertising material, with permission and using the guidelines below. Written permission to use the logo is needed to obtain the logo.

The AAOS Member Logo intended use is to confirm association membership by the Supervisor or Supervisor Trainer. The Logo must not be used to state or imply AAOS endorsement of website or workshop content, professional materials and/or business.

The logo will be provided in standard jpg format, free of charge to those members who meet these criteria:

- must be a current financial member of AAOS
- must not have fees or documents outstanding
- must not be in the process of being investigated for unethical conduct by any professional association to which the member subscribes

The Supervisor, Supervisor trainer or Recognised Supervisor Training Provider's (RSTP) will use the AAOS Member Logo in good faith. As soon as the member ceases membership of the association, the member is required to advise AAOS in writing via email to: info@supervision.org.au that all logo's have been removed from any of the (ex) member communication materials, both internally and externally. Upon leaving the association, use of the AAOS Member Logo may not be used in any communications and/or materials).

The AAOS Member logo may only be adjusted in size ratio, without altering overall dimensions. No other adjustments or colour alterations may be made.

A Supervisor, Supervisor Trainer or Recognised Supervisor Training Provider's (RSTP) member who misuses the logo is subject to disciplinary action by AAOS. Actions which may be taken include, but are not limited to:

- Modification of logo placement and/or application
- Removal of the logo from materials
- Destruction of materials which have misused the AAOS Member Logo and/or
- AAOS membership may be suspended or cancelled

AAOS members using the logo may do so for their own private work but the logo cannot be used to endorse any associations for which they work or of which they are a member, unless that organisation holds membership of AAOS as an AAOS Recognised Supervisor Training Program (RSTP)
